Duty of Disclosure Notice

Insured's duty of disclosure

A person who enters into a life insurance contract in respect of your life has a duty, before entering into the contract, to tell us anything that he or she knows, or could reasonably be expected to know, which may affect our decision to provide the insurance and on what terms.

The person entering into the contract has this duty until we agree to provide the insurance. The person entering into the contract has the same duty before he or she extends, varies or reinstates the contract.

The person entering into the contract does not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive our duty to tell us about.

For contracts of insurance entered into, renewed, extended, varied or reinstated from 28 December 2015, if you do not tell us something that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, which may affect our decision to provide the insurance and on what terms, this may be treated as a failure by the person entering into the contract to tell us something that he or she must tell us.

If the person entering the contract does not tell us something

In exercising the following rights, we may consider whether different types of cover can constitute separate contracts of life insurance. If they do, we may apply the following rights separately to each type of cover.

If the person entering into the contract does not tell us anything he or she is required to, and we would not have provided the insurance if he or she had told us, we may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it.

If we choose not to avoid the contract, we may, at any time, reduce the amount of insurance provided. This would be worked out using a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if he or she had told us everything he or she should have. However, if the contract has a surrender value, or provides cover on death, we may only exercise this right within 3 years of entering into the contract.

If we choose not to avoid the contract or reduce the amount of insurance provided, we may, at any time vary the contract in a way that places us in the same position we would have been in if he or she had told us everything he or she should have. However, this right does not apply if the contract has a surrender value or provides cover on death.

If the failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Duty of Disclosure Notice

Your duty of disclosure

If you are the Policy Owner, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, which may affect our decision to insure you and any other Life Insured and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you, and also before you extend, vary or reinstate the Policy.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces our risk; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you are a Life Insured (other than the Policy Owner), any failure by you to tell us this information may be treated as a failure by the Policy Owner to comply with this duty of disclosure.

If you do not tell us something

If you are the Policy Owner, and you do not tell us anything you are required to, and we would not have insured you if you had told us, we may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it.

If we choose not to avoid the contract, we may reduce the amount you have been insured for, based on a statutory formula. (We may only exercise this right within 3 years of entering into the Policy if it provides death cover.)

If we choose not to avoid the Policy or reduce the amount you have been insured for, if your Policy does not provide death cover, we may vary the contract in a way that places us in the same position we would have been in if you had told us everything you should have.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

We may apply these rights separately to each type of cover that we consider could form a separate policy.

Important Information

AIA Australia agrees to provide individual transfer terms for Death/Total & Permanent Disablement (TPD) cover and Income Protection cover on the following basis:

- The maximum amount of cover that can be transferred per life insured is:
  - $2 million for Death only or Death and TPD cover
  - $20,000 per month for Income Protection cover.
- The Waiting Period (WP) and Benefit Period (BP) will be matched to the ESUPERFUND SMSF Master Insurance Plan offer. If the current WP is different, the life insured's WP will be rounded up to the next longest WP offered in the ESUPERFUND SMSF Master Insurance Plan offer, e.g. a 45 day WP will be rounded up to a 60 day WP. For BP, a life insured will receive the equivalent of their current BP, or if not available in the ESUPERFUND SMSF Master Insurance Plan, the lesser BP offered in the ESUPERFUND SMSF Master Insurance Plan.
- The level of cover provided to the life insured will be the level of cover currently held through their current fund/insurer and only where the current insurer's acceptance terms were less than or equal to +50% extra mortality and/or one exclusion for Death/TPD and Income Protection cover.
- For Death/TPD and Income Protection cover, if an exclusion is transferred from your current fund/insurer, the exclusion wording of AIA Australia will apply.
- The life insured has not been paid/lodged, nor is eligible to be paid/lodged, a Terminal Illness, TPD or Income Protection benefit from AIA Australia, another insurance arrangement or superannuation fund.
- The life insured is an Australian permanent resident and aged less than 60.
- The life insured is not terminally ill with a life expectancy of less than 12 months.
- The life insured is Gainfully Employed.
- The life insured must meet the eligibility criteria for insurance cover as set out in the PDS.
- The life insured does not continue the cover under another insurance arrangement.
- The life insured provides a copy of an annual statement from the superannuation fund (where relevant) which is less than 12 months old, or a Certificate of Currency from an insurance company which is less than 60 days old, as evidence of cover currently held with the current fund/insurer.
- The life insured's replacement cover will not commence in the ESUPERFUND SMSF Master Insurance Plan until the later of:
  - AIA Australia accepting the life insured's application, and
  - the existing insurance cover with the current fund/insurer being cancelled.
- The applicant/life insured completes this Individual Insurance Transfer form to AIA Australia's satisfaction.
- Occupational classifications will be based on the classifications used by the ESUPERFUND SMSF Master Insurance Plan.
- Ratings and premiums may change to adapt to AIA Australia's ratings and premiums.

I confirm that I have the power under the trust deed and/or constitution of the company governing the superannuation fund to effect cover under the Policy described on this form.

I agree that no benefit will be paid under this Policy in any circumstances if I make the application on behalf of another person.
